2020 Reading Chapter Scholarship

In 2019, the PSPE Reading Chapter scholarship was awarded to Ms. Jiyeux Seok. Ms. Seok is a Chemical and Biomolecular Engineering major at the University of Pennsylvania. Ms. Seok’s application demonstrated her commitment to academics, as well as a variety of service-oriented extracurricular activities including the University Choral Society, as well as outreach programs to the homeless in west Philadelphia. She spent the summer conducting research on the conversion of food waste to fuel using anaerobic digesters at the National University of Singapore, and plans to pursue work in the renewable energy sector upon graduation. Congratulations Ms. Jiyeux Seok!
